South Shore Baptist Church 2011 MISSIONS CONFERENCE

Eric Briscoe

Eric lives with his wife in Weymouth. He has been involved in reaching out to people with the Gospel in his unique way. Maybe you've seen him at downtown crossing with his easel telling the story of Jesus in the "open air" to all who will listen. He works with staff in many major cities in the U.S. training and supporting them spiritually. He hopes to have 25 cities impacted by this ministry by 2025.

Paul Biswas

Born in a Hindu family, raised in a Muslim country, Paul Biswas became a follower of Jesus at the age of twenty one.

Paul received his call for the ministry in 1976 and in 1977 after graduation from the Bible College, he was ordained as a minister by the Baptist Church in his home town Bangladesh. For six years he did pastoral ministry, evangelism and church planting in his country before he went to Philippines with his family in 1982 for his graduate study.

At present he is a Ph.D Associate at William Carey International University in Missions and International Development.

In 2002 Paul was called to do evangelism and church planting among unreached people groups from South Asia in the Greater Boston area. Since 2003 Paul has been serving as a self funded missionary. He has engaged in dialogue with Muslims, Hindus and Buddhists, organized outreach Bible study groups, and offered seminars on Muslim and Hindu Evangelism to mobilize New England churches. He is the founding pastor of Boston Bangla Church, the first Bengali Church in New England. Paul and his wife Elizabeth are blessed by two children and two grandchildren.
